The Spectacle Makers Charity - Travel Grant Award Scoring Sheet

Name:

Criterion	Score	Guide to scoring
Importance of topic covered		3 - important topic with direct clinical relevance and likely impact 2 - some clinical relevance but unlikely to translate into clinical impact in near future 1- unlikely to have clinical impact in near future, mostly academic interest 0- no clinical impact foreseen
Presentation impact		3- Confirmed oral presentation at a major or the most appropriate meeting. 2- Confirmed oral presentation at a smaller meeting or poster presentation at major meeting 1- Confirmed poster presentation at smaller meeting 0- No confirmed presentation
Quality of Project		3- Novel research or high impact service review/audit 2- High quality retrospective study 1- Smaller retrospective study 0- Study in planning stage, no results available
Quality of submission		3- Well written, high-quality analysis of results, sound conclusions that are justified by the results 2- Good submission, with appropriate analysis of results and conclusions 1- Major limitations within the study design or results, or unsubstantiated conclusions from information provided 0- Very limited submission, missing key sections of a project write up
Developmental benefit to ophthalmologist		3- Presenter will develop key skills in attending the conference or presenting the work 2- Presenter will gain some skills but unclear how this will impact their future career 1- Relatively minor benefit to career or development from the award 0- No discernible benefit to development